DEC Memo: "02/23/09-Hiralkumar Patel. spoke with Ira. he mentioned that based on surveillance camera, hydraulic oil spilled from broken pipe on sanitation truck. spill happend around 8:15 AM today. they called NYPD, who called DEP. DEP came and tested oil and found combustible non-hazardous compound. DEP left. no info about cleanup. left message for Subin Anthony (718-595-4784) at DEP who visited site. spoke with Herbst (646-885-4534) at NYC Sanitation. he will send crew for cleanup. 03/03/2009- HRAHMED- Spoke to the house owner Ms. Howard Strauss (718 743 1441). As per her, due to a broken line on a Sanitation truck, hydraulic oil was sprayed over cars, sidewalk, porch and front wall of the property. The adjacent property also impacted in this incident. The impacted cars were washed in the nearby Sanitation garage. As per the owner, she has a copy of a video tape which was recorded on surveillance camera of the adjacent property showing the incident. Department of Sanitation's District (Brooklyn South, Brooklyn 15) Superintendent Fred Tuzzolino (718 743 6868) was on scene after the incident happened. He said that the house-owner or her insurer, as per the City Policy, has to hire a contractor to cleanup the spill. Fred gave the house-owner a claim form to claim for a re-imbursement. Ms. Strauss contacted some contractor and waiting for their quotation. Spoke to Fred Tuzzolino of DSNY. He said, he contacted DSNY Operations regarding the cleanup and the operation said as per the city policy the owner or her insurer, has to hire a contractor to cleanup the spill, and then can claim for re-imburement. Fred requested to discuss this matter to DSNY Operation Superintendent John Levin @ 718 891 3852. Sent a CSL letter requiring immediate cleanup to (Faxed a copy @ 718 434 4985) New York City Department of Sanitation Attn: Fred Tuzzolino District Superintendent 25-09 Knapp St Brooklyn, NY 11229 A copy of the CSL was sent to the owner s address. 03/04/2009- HRAHMED- Spoke to John Levin, District Operations Superintendent (718 714 2700). He said that it is against City s Policy to do any cleanup in any private property. The home owner or her insurer has to hire a contractor and get re-imburement. Ahmed sent a copy of the CSL to John and reminded him that, if DEC does not receive notice by COB 03/06/2009, that DSNY will cleanup the spill the case will be referred to NYS Division of Environmental Enforcement. Spoke to Stephen Harbin (Chief, DSNY Division of Safety and Training, 718 748 7958, 646 235 3098 cell). He also echoed the same message. Dec Spill section Chief Austin spoke to DSNY Stephen and explained that since DSNY is responsible for the incident, they need to clean it immediately. But DSNY Stephen repeated the same policy regarding cleanup and said he will consult with their legal department regarding their responsibility. Ahmed spoke to the house-owner and scheduled a site visit tomorrow at 10:00AM. 03/05/2009-HRAHMED-Visited the site. Met with Ms. Strauss at the site. Noticed oil stain on the drive way, stairway to of this property and the adjacent property (271 W End Ave, Brooklyn). Conference Call between DEC John Urda, Randall Austin, Hasan Ahmed and DSNY Asst Commissioner (Legal) Steve Brautigam (646 885 4685). Steve admitted that the DSNY didn't address the spill properly to clean it up. He said he will arrange to clean up the spill by Friday. 3/6/09-HRAHMED- Spoke to Ms Strauss. As per her one of the sanitation crew showed up last night to get her signature on a Graffiti Cleanup Form. She denied to sign it. DSNY Steve called to say that they are drafting a Property Access form for the owner to sign it. 3/11/09-Spoke to Ms Strauss. As per her DSNY crew will come today to collect the signed Property Access form from her and her neighbour. 10/31/11-Hiralkumar Patel. case transferred from DEC Hasan to DEC Patel. case closed due to nature of the spill."
